the Market.

Action on the Tariff.

in a waiting mood, and are unwilling to

N. Y. & N. E. cart's... 914 914 N. Y., L. E. & W..... 1414 1114

Northern Pacific pf 164 164

Or. S. L. & Utah Nor 614

Tenn. Coal & Iron 19% 20

Tol., Ann Arb. 4 N. M.,

Wabash pf

New York Central 9814 9814 9814 9814

William G. Russell.

(By Associated Press.)

place of William G. Russell as master in the New York and New England Railroad receivership.

Next Saturday the master will hold his first consultation to see whether or not $1,500,000 in receiver's certificates shall be issued.

CRAYON COUPON. 99 Cents

AT The Tavority

BOSTON, June 14.-Darwin E. Ware.

of this city, was to-day appointed in 7.96

Atch., Top. & Santa Pe., 514

Committed as a Drunkard at Her Own Request.

Mrs. Kate Keenan, aged thirty-five years, attempted to escape from the House of the Good Shepherd, Hopkinson avenue, Pacific and Dean streets, Brook lyn, at 4.30 A. M. to-day, and fell from second floor to the sidewalk, sustaining injuries which may prove fatal. Mrs. Keenan is the wife of a cigar maker, conducting a store in Broadway, Berry street and Wythe ave nue, Williamsburg. Two weeks ago she and was committed to the institution as window to ascertain the cause of the alarm.

They saw her lying unconscious with blood streaming from her nose.

An ambulance was hastily summoned, from St. Mary's Hospital, and Surgeon Reynolds, after examining the woman, said she had sustained a fracture of the left foot and internal injuries, the exact nature of which he could not then state.

She was removed to the hospital and her husband was notified.

FATAL SHAM BATTLE.

the death of fourteen-year-old William Scheher, of 143 Twenty-third street, on Scheher, of 143 Twenty-third street, on June 5 last.

Boone was held in default of $2,000 bail pending an investigation by Coroner Kene.

Boone and Scheher and a large number of other boys were playing in a vacant lot at Third avenue and Twenty-third street on the afternoon of June 5. They were engaged in a hot sham battle. Boone was in one army and Scheher was in the other. The weapons of each army were stones, tin cans, sticks and the like.

Scheher was struck on the head with the like.

Scheher was struck on the head with an oil can and fell to the ground. The boys ran away. When Scheher regained consciousness he said that Boone threw the oil can. Scheher became very much worse after he was taken home. Blood poisoning set in. He was removed to the Brooklyn City Hospital, where he died on June 12.

ination into Jacobson's Death.

Gabriel Erickson, forty-five years old, of 85 Degraw sireet, Brooklyn, was held by Justice Tighe in Butler Street Court, Brooklyn, this morning to await the result of Coroner Kene's investigation into the causes which led to the death of Matthew Jacobson, a sallor, fifty years old, of 623 Clinton street, Brooklyn.

The complaint is made by Mrs. Emma Olsen, of 623 Clinton street, who says of 623 Clinton street who says of 624 Clinton street who says of 625 C death of Matthew Jacobson, a sailor, fifty years old, of 623 Clinton street, Brooklyn.

The complaint is made by Mrs. Emma Olsen, of 623 Clinton street, who says Erickson, while intoxicated, called on Jacobson last Sunday morning. After some talk about the loan of a dollar to Jacobson, Erickson began to banter Jacobson as to bis physical street. to Jacobson. Erickson began to banter Jacobson as to his physical strength.

The men clinched, and Erickson threw Jacobson to the floor and began to beat him about the face and head until unconscious and then ran away.

An ambulance was called and Jacobson was taken to the Long Island College Hospital, where he died on Tuesday morning. An autopsy revealed a congested condition of the kidneys and brain, also a severe injury to the spine. Erickson claims that he did not intend to harm Jacobson, and told Detectives Farrell and McMilian that the whole affair was an accident.

Just Missed the Three Little Maids During a rehearsal of "The Mikado" by the atre this morning, a large fire-hook fell from the Labor Leader's Tragle Death. (By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, June 14.-Edward F. Hughes, Presi

Thrown from His Car. Henry Decker, driver of a Second avenue car, was thrown from his car at Pearl street and Peck slip last night. He sustained several contusions

A Reporter Brenks His Leg. James Corrigan, a newspaper reporter, of 250 West Thirty-fifth street, broke his leg early this

They don't seem like medicine, to tell the truth. They're so small and so pleasant to take, and their action and effects are so natural.

Duliness, drowsiness, weariness, loss of appetite, furred tongue, frequent headaches with or without dizziness, chilly sensations, and occasional nauses show that you need Dr. Pierce's Fellots. That is Billousness. And in billousness, as well as every disorder of the stomach and howels, they'll give you a lasting cure.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. Don't be put off with any substitute. It can't be "just as good" for yed to bur.

Plunge at Gale's Ferry.

Do," He Had Just Said.

It did not touch the water, and the next brose Park. instant the great coach was floundering

For a few seconds the Yale oarsmen were dumfounded, and then a loud guffaw burst upon the air as the head of their instructor appeared above the surface, his soft felt hat still clinging to surface, his soft felt hat still clinging to his head.

The Yale crew had started from their float but five minutes before, and Cook, for the first time this senson, ensayed to coach from a single shell. The locat had got into Clark's Cove, where the water was smooth, and the men were resting on their oars, awaiting the usual lecture. Cook stopped rowing, and the first words he spoke were those quoted above.

above. Two Columbia substitutes pulled out in a dory, but before their arrival Cook found that he could touch bottom, and then he stood with the shell held over his head to allow the water to run out. With the assistance of the men in the dory he returned to the shell, and for about twenty minutes coached the crew and then ordered the boat to return. Up to 19.39 none of the other crews made its appearance on the river.

IN FEAR OF A COLLAPSE.

Employees at 210 Fulton Street Frightened by the Vibration. A number of the female employees in the building 210 Fulton street fear a repetition of the Park place disaster and repetition of the Park place disaster and have made a complaint to the Building Department. The building is owned by the Clark estate and is leased to J. A. Lowe, who estate and is leased to J. A. Lowe, who sub-lets to the Wheel Printing Company and John B. Ihl. The latter occupies the ground floor as a fish house. The Wheel Company occupies the next floor as a bindery and business office. The floor above is used by J. A. Lowe as a paper warehouse. The fourth floor is filled with the presses of the Wheel Company, and the floor above as a company and the floor above as a company. posing room.

When the presses are running the vibration can easily be felt on the ground

Ilor.

J. A. Lowe, the lessee of the building, told an "Evening World" reporter that he considered the building perfectly safe. It had been examined by inspectors from the Building Department, who had authorized J. J. Convey, a civil engineer, of 108 Fulton street, to make a thorough examination.

of 108 Fulton street, to make a thorough examination.

Mr. Conway said that he had made a complete examination of the building and recommended the strengthening of the rear part of the fourth floor where one of the heavlest presses is located. The law allows 225 pounds weight to the square foot, which is just one-fourth of what it will stand, and in the particular place where the additional strengthening will be placed it runs three pounds over the allowance. Mr. Conway said he did not consider the building in a dangerous condition. The alterations will be completed by next Saturday night.

The Wheel Company and J. A. Lowemploy a large number of girls, and vibrations from the running presses cause them uneasiness.

COAL IS NOT $5.25 A TON.

"The World" Sells It at $4.50, and That's the Right Price.

The sale of coal by "The World" at the rate of $4.50 a ton to all comers continues

LAHN PASSED ICEBERGS.

of Ocean Steamers.

Incoming steamships report the presnce of many icebergs along the track between European ports and New York. The steamship Lahn, which arrived from Southampton and Bremen this morning, reports having seen several big bergs June 11 in latitude 42.32, longi-tude 48.23.

The Lahn left Bremen June 5 and tude 48.23.
The Lahn left Bremen June 5 and Southampton next day, with a general cargo, 150 cabin passengers and 177 steerage passengers, to Celricha & Co.

Caught Ten Men and 48 Cents. In the Essex Market Police Court to-day Jus tice Koch held Samuel Feinberg, the proprietor of a cafe at 20 Orchard street, for keeping an sileged gambling house. Last night eight police-men of Capt. Corright's staff marched into the place and placed ten men under streat. The po-lice also seized 45 cents and five packs of cards, Some of the men were playing casino. They were fixed $1 each.

Peter Burkhardt, sixty-eight years old, of 139 Sullivan street, Brooklyn, was bitten on the hand this morning while playing with a pet monkey in a salous on India Wharf. His wound was dressed by Ambulance Surgeon O'Connor and he was taken home.

Run Down and Was Killed.

DODDS FERRY, N. Y., June 14 -- An unknown man was killed by a train on the New York Cen-tral Railroad at Low Point this morning. It is believed he was from one of the nearby villages on his way to witness the Dobbs Ferry celebration, His body was removed to the Morgue. The Cincinnati Not Quite Ready

Rear Admiral Bancroft Gherardi, commandment at the Brooklyn Navy-Vard, decided this afternoon, not to place the United States cruiser Cincinnati in commission until Saturday or Mon-day, pending a few repairs.

You read "The Evening World" Do you rend the Sunday World? EVER SEE SUCH FIGURES?

fruesdell, Spreter & Co. Kuocking Spots Out of Prices.

Talk of low prices! Was there ever anything offered at so ridiculously low a figure as a wrapper for 39 cents, or a walst in percales and prints, with jabot and ruffled collar, for 15 cents?

and ruffled collar, for 15 cents?

Truesdell, Spreter & Co., of Eighth avenue and Twenty-fourth street, have accomplished this really marvellous commercial feat.

But not only do they offer the articles named at such ebb-tide prices. The following list will show that they have run the knife through the pieces along the whole gamus of things that everybody needs.

For instance, Brussels carpets, 25 cents a yard; gossamer and balbriggan underwear, 55 cents; cheviot neglige shirts, 35 cents; Oxford ties, 15 cents; galates wash suits, 35 cents; laces, 2 cents a yard and so on in swelry, lineas, notions medicines and what not and it must not be forgotten that everything is of the best quality.

Selling Them Whiskey.

Accordingly.

(By Associated Press.)

The pyrotechnic-like effects of South
GALE'S FERRY, Conn., June 14.—

Brocoklyn fire-water in the highly deco"This is what you don't want to do," rated Indian have kept the residents of said Bob Cook, the famous couch of the that section of the City of Churches in a that section of the City of Churches in a Chicago Gas there was absolutely no Yale crew, as he attempted to illustrate state of excitement ever since Buffalo feature to speculation. The traders are by suddenly jerking his starboard oar. Bill opened the Wild West Show at Am-

Complaints have been pouring into account until news from Washington on Police Headquarters asking the authorithe tariff is of a more positive character, venting the painted Sioux and Apaches from a threatened nightly display of the war dance on the streets, after imbibling at the various saloons around the show.

To head off any such possibilities.

To head off any such possibilities.

Since Campucil sent out the following:

DEMOCRATS

Jersey City's Water Board Makes Another Raid.

Republicans at Once Appointed to Fill the Vacancies.

The Jersey City Street and Water Board held a meeting this morning, and in a short while twenty-eight Democrats were dismissed. Then twenty-eight Republicans appointed in their places. The most important dismissal was that of Chief Engineer William Kearny, of the Bellevilla water works. He had been employed at the works for the William Miller, a Republican, was appointed in his place. The Democratic members of the The Democratic members of the Board. John J. Cohn and Henry Keller, voted against the dismissal of the Democrats.

The Republicans, having three members in the Board, however, had the power and used it.

The two Democratic members said that while they were in harmony with the other members of the Board on other questions, they did not believe in dismissing officials without any cause and simply to make room for Republicans.

LYNCH RESISTED ARREST.

Charges of Assault.

Philip Lynch, of 129 Baltic street, Brooklyn, was held this morning by Jus-Brooklyn, was held this morning by Jus.

tice Tighe, in Butler Street Court, for examination, June 18, on two charges of assault.

KILLED BY A KICK.

Micolo Resodors Arrested for the Death of His Friend. Nicolo Resodora, aged forty-nine years, who lives in Mercein street. Brooklyn. causing the death of Nicolo Descena- Ontario & Western..... mora, of 228 York street.

Several weeks ago the mcn had a friendly wrestling match. Descenamora, who was much younger, was getting the better of his opponent when the latter lost his temper and kicked him. The blow, it is said, produced peritonitis, which terminated fatally on June 2.

Too Young to Be Held for Crime. U. S. Cordage...... The Coroner's jury, which inquired to-day into the death of five-year-old Eather Barren, of 63 U. S. Leather pf 53 Chrystie street, on whose lap her playmate, four curryate sirect, on whose lap her playmate, four-year-old Moses Goldstein, built a bonfire of June 3 last, exonerated the little culprit, as the law defines a child under the age of seven years as incapable of committing a crime.

Wall Street Notes.

The orthern Central semi-annual dividend of 3 er cent., declared yesterday, is a reduction of 2 per cent, per annum.

President Depew said yesterday that the directors of the New York Central would meet on June 22 to consider the matter of a quarterly dividend.

A prominent bank President says that it is the policy of the Clearing House to encourage banks which are not members to join. It gives, he says, more compa-friens to the organization and makes the government of the body a simpler matter.

ter.

The Southern Railway and Steamship Association yesterday agreed to make no contracts gatending the present low competitive rates beyond July 31. They can make no agreement on new and uniform rates before Aug. 1, owing the Georgia Central's pending cut-rate contracts. he Georgia Central's pending cul-rate contracts.

The following is said on good authority to be the plan agreed upon for the reorganization of the Atchison property: The new income bonds will have voting power until 5 per cent. has been paid on them for three successive years. The total issue of income bonds will be 110,000,000. While a $12 assessment on the stock will be mamed, it will be called in five instalmonts, extending over a period of about six months. The As and It's will get income bonds. Colorado Midland 4s will also be saked to take income bonds. Atlantic and Pacific 4s will be given 55,00,000 A and P. bonds in Atchison treasury, and for the balance will receive a first mottage on the A. and P. lands. The 120,000,000 second mortigage for improvements cannot be issued in excess of $1,000,000 in any one year. The reduction in fixed charges alone is sufficient, it is claimed, to permits in an average year, the payment of 1 per cent, on the income bonds, assuming also that the full $10,000,000 Eds were all issued.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she ching to Castoria. Vises she had Children, she gave them Castor!

Mrs. Keenan Was Escaping from The Great Yale Coach's Sudden Brooklynites Protested Against Decline in That Stock Depresses Accused Captain Tells How He Tried to Serve Subpœnas.

> "This is What You Don't Want to Supt. Campbell Instructs Captains Traders Are Walting for Definite Wolff Says He Played Roulotte in an Alderman's House.

account until news from Washington on station, charged with neglect of duty ties to take some steps towards pre-or some other development occurs cal-venting the painted Sioux and Apaches culated to give the market a definite public attention was first called by "The Evening World' on June 2, was re-sumed before the Board of Police Commissioners at 1140 o'clock this morning still favors large shipments of currency this way.

There is a good borrowing demand for stocks. New York Central is in scarce supply, and lent at 1-16 premium. Lake Shore and Northern Pacific preferred commanded 1-84; Louisville & Nashville, 1-128, and St. Paul and C. B. & Q. flat to 1-256.

The selling movement in Sugar increased as the day advanced, and the stock fell below par, carrying down the whole list 1-8 to 1-4 per cent. Outside of Sugar, which is adversely influenced by the Senate investigation, the dealings were small. Boston houses sold Union Pacific.

The Bank of England rate of discount remains unchanged at 2 per cent. The proportion of reserve to liability is 78,62 per cent. against 87.2 per cent. last week and 49.79 per cent. last year. Buillion in the bank during the week increased 1783,000 and reserve increased 183,000 and 183,000 and 183,000 an game.

Did any one follow Sullivan out?"

Yes, sir, I did. So did Meyers. One of the people told me I should see where he went. I shadowed him for a block. When Meyers returned, he said Sullivan sold the chips.

"Have you ever seen Alderman Parks "I saw him standing in front of the house. Gambling was going on there at the time."

the time."

When cross-examined, the witness said:

"I know Capt, Price. I saw him at his house at 7 o'clock this morning. I told him I had been subpoenaed here to-day, and that I did not want to go."

"What did he say to you?" "He told me to leave the house, go own to Police Headquarters and give

"At 71 East Eighty-first street."

"Prior to the time I was in Europe I lived in East Sixty-eighth street My business before going to Europe was that of a diamond-broke. I had no regular office. I had room with Mr. Peyser, in Nassau street, and got my mail there. I ddn't do much business.

"How did you support yourself?"

"I got regular remittances from Europe." 54's rope."
Ty From whereabouts in Europe and from who?"

to 62 3-8c. This was a rise of to 62 3-8c. This was a rise of the formula opening opened at 59 1-2c. for July and sold up to 60 1-4c. A decline to the opening price was caused by free selling. Corn was higher. The early always as about 5-8c. July selling here at 46 1-4c. and 42c. in Chicago. Oats ruled firm, advancing 5-8c. and selling here at 46 1-2c. for July and 32 3-8c, at Chicago.

Cotton opened at an advance of 1 to Cotton opened at an advance of 1 to 2 moints, June selling at 7.17, July 7.19 went to the station-house at midnight, but Price wasn't there. I went there this morning and found him."

Did you attempt to hold a conversable of the conv "Did you attempt to hold a conversa-tion with Capt. Price here this morn-ing?" Darwin E. Ware to Be Master, Vice "I merely asked him where I could find Mr. Blandy, and he directed me find Mr. Blandy, and be didn't upstairs."

"Didn't he say to you that he didn't be say to you that he didn't propose to have any conversation with you except in the presence of the Comyou except in the presence of the missioners?"
"No, sir; he certainly did not."
Lawyer Grant, endesyored to creat, the impression in the minds of the Commissioners that Wolff had en deavored, according to a prearrange plan, to induce Capt, Price to say some thing which might be construed into suggestion to run away. He met wit utter failure, for Wolff tertified due in one had advised him to call on Cap Price, nor did any one suggest an one had advised him to call on Capt Price, nor did any one suggest any questions whatever.

"How many weeks before June 1 did you visit 346 West Thirry-first street."

"About three weeks. There was no roulette nor no red and black table, nor any gambling paraphernalia there. There was only a friendly game of "hearts" going on. I only played there once for money."

"Did you call at an afternoon newspaper office and try to sell the story shortly after the visit of Mr. Sullivan?"

"Yes, sir. I had seen it advertised in

SHE FELL 25 FEET. BOB COOK GOES OVERBOARD. FEARED DRUNKEN INDIANS. SUGAR WEAKENS THE LIST. PRICE UNDER FIRE. O'NEIL

6th Ave., 20th to 21st St.

Special Values

FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

The trial of Police Captain James K. commit themselves on either side of the account until news from Washington on the tariff is of a more positive character, or some other development occurs callar 345 West Thirty-sirst street, to which DEPT.

war dance on the streets, after imbiding at the various saloons around the show.

To head off any such possibilities, supt. Campbell sent out the following order to-day to all captains, calling attention to the communication which he had received from the Department of Police and Excise;

Sir; Your sitentien is called to section 2; chapter sil of the Lawa of 1523, which provides the word of not, shall sell or offer or expose for sale or not, shall sell or offer or expose for sale or give away any strong or spiritons liquors, wince, ale or here. To sale in the following prisonment for not more than 350, or by both.

To head off any such possibilities, such that the least be of smaller proportions than here the had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication will have been a provided the Communication which he had received from the Department of the Communication will have been a provided the Communication while head to such the Proving the Communication while head to such the Communication while head to such the Commu

Misses' one and two piece Suits of Fine All-Wool Plain and Fancy Material, all shades, 12, 14 and 16

3.98 and 5.98

Regular value 8.98 to 19.00. Children's Dresses, Imported Goods, handsomely trimmed, de sirable colors, 4 to 10 year sizes, Former prices 5.00 to 10.00.

Misses' and Children's Reefer

Sixth Ave., 20th to 21st St.

the Morning Journal that the story was to appear Sunday, and I thought that as it was to come out any way I might as well make something out of it."
"What paper did you visit?"
"The Evening Post."
"Did you see Mr. Lyman Saturday night, June 2?"
"Yes, sir."
"Yes, sir."
Didn't you offer to suppress the story for $100?"
"No. sir. I did not."

The conversation took place in Thirty-first street, in front of Alderman Parks, house. I met Lyman coming out of Me slidewalk.

"Isn't it a fact that you rang Alderman Parks's boile, that Lyman an Parks's bell; that Lyman and some information that you said you had some information that would be worth allored to see the Alderman; also that you said you had some information that would be worth allored to see if the gambling-house was open after The Evening World's.

"No, sir; it's a lie, I walked through the steet to see if the gambling-house was open after The Evening World's.

"No, sir, it's a lie, I walked through the steet to see if the gambling-house was open after The Evening World's.

"Scholes asked me," said the witness, all the story in the Sunday Heraid. He told me at first that Alderman Parks had been running the game at 345 West Thirty-first street, but that he had turn the sidewalk. Alderman Parks came was open after The Evening World's.

"Scholes and the to stop the publication of the story in the Sunday Heraid. He cold me at first that Alderman Parks was still one of the younger." He referred to some a the sidewalk. Alderman Parks came out, and in a joking way said he heard to thing that had been said inside. I was a 'plugger.' He referred to some a thing that had been said inside. I was since?"

"No, sir," "Scholes shide to stop the was a 'plugger.' He referred to some a thing that had been said inside. I was since?"

"No, sir," "Scholes and he didn't care for himself or Lyman, but that he wanted to protect the city official hinted at in the all was a 'plugger.' He referred to some a caknowiedged that Alderman Parks since?"

"No, sir," "N

Bloomingdales O'NE

THAT SACRIFICE SALE.

Friday will be the most important day yet of the sacrifice sale of Dry Goods.

Hundreds of special lots SPECIAL which we cannot itemize because the quantities are too small to last the entire day will be put on sale For Friday and Saturday. early in the morning.

New lots every hour till closing time.

SEE THESE PRICES!

Н	Minus And Market Co.	-
H		3
1	10c. Lawns at	51
		3)
	All-Linen Fringed Napkins	-
	60c. Damask	4
	isc. Towels
	Ladies' 35 Trimmed Hats at
	39c. Silk Table Scarfs at	11
	Ladles' $2,50 Slippers at	8
	Boys' Wash Sattor Suits
	1.200 lines' $5 and $6 Suits at	3.
	Ladies Sc. Hous at
	Ladies' Siik Hose	41
	Children's 17c. Hose at	1
	Men's 20c. Half Hose at
	Men's Sitk Hose	2
	Ladies' Ribbed Vests
	Ladies' 49c. Hats at
	Ladles' $1.49 Hats at	2
	Children's 63c. Caps at	2
	25c. Velvet Ribbons at	7
i	124er. Handkerchiefs at
	15c. Embroidered Edgings at
	15c. Lucia to go at
,	Good Musiia Cornet Covers
	Pine Mustin Underwear	P
	Good Ventilating Cornets	4
	Ready-made Sheets	3
Ü	Rendy-made Pillow Cases	-
)	Men'a Raibriggan Shirts	2
	Men's Fancy Domet Outing Shirts	2
	Boys' 60c, Waists	ī
	10c. to 25c. Paper Novels
٠	Playing Cards, ivory finish, per pack	- 6
	Pinochie Carda, full set, fur
ı	Colgate's Soap, box of 1 dos. for	3
٠		3
	Solid-grain Leather Satchel	1
	47c. Silk Belts at $8 Enamelied Beds at Bissell Carpet Sweeper (4-wheel)
	Good Sreen-corn Floor Broom

et Dry Goods, Furniture, Carpets, Upholster;

Bloomingdale Bros., trimmed, variety of colors, 4 to 16 3d Ave., 59th & 60th Sts.

Good value at 8.00 and 12.00. Friday, June 15th, Ladies' Fancy Lawn Waists in all sizes, newest colors, embroidered ruffles,

Worth $2.25. Lord & Taylor,
Broadway & 20th St.

and a playager. For I had played for the wind manufacture of the story for the story of the stor

6th Ave., 20th to 21st St

To close out the following lines of Standard .

Dress Goods

we have made

All-Wool Serges, three styles 45 inches wide, Plain, Figured and Stripes, 48c.

All-wool Serges, 52 inches wide, Seed Spots, Jacquard Figures and Plain,

68c.

Reduced from 95c. and 1.10. All-wool Covert Cloths, 59 inches wide, new shades, Superior Finish, 98c.

Worth 1.20. All-wool Black Crepon, 40 inches wide, Deep Crinkle,

All Silk Black French Grenadines marked down to

HALF COST OF IMPORTATION

A, F, JAMMES 009 BROADWAY & 18 WEST SOFT

Pure Lisle Thread Gloves, 1216. 48c. quality Silk Gloves, 19c.; Washable Chamois Gloves, 696.; Real Kid Gloves, 59c., worth 1.35. Ladies' Wash Waists, 25c.; Swiss Ribbed Vests, 6c.

Pond's Extract, 19c.; Hunyadi Janos Water, 14c.; Carter Little Aver Pills, 9C.; Hoods wanted to know whether he could find the missing witnesses by next Wednes-day. He said that somebody had driven the people away. President Martin wanted to know why the Captain had not sent his detectives to watch the witnesses. Capt. Price replied he had sorved two with subpoenas. "Well, they've gone away?"

rilla, 49c.; Bromo Seltzer, Bo.;

Pascola, 34c.; Castoria, 17c., 40

Yes, sir."
"That's all I want to hear," replies
Commissioner Martin angrily.
The case was adjourned till next
Thursday at 19.80 A. M.

CRITICISED THE POLICE.

Capt. Kenny's Remark Inspires Some Comments from the Beach. Justice Gaynor, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer this morning, heard arguments on the return of the writ of Cohen, who was arrested yesterday for at Second avenue and Thirty-eighth

Since then, it is said, she frequently begged the officials of the house to allow her to return to her home. She low her to return to her home. She slept in the dormitory on the second floor of the Dean street side of the building.

At 4.30 A. M. to-day she arose and prepared to effect an escape from the house. Going into the bathroom, adjoining the sleeping apartment, she found a piece of rope. She fastened this to the blinds and prepared to descend.

She climbed out on the window ledge, and, grasping the rope, began her slide for freedom.

The rope burned her hands and with for freedom.

The rope burned her hands and with a shriek she released her hold.

Her body shot to the sidewalk, twenty-five feet below.

Her cries awakened a number of the attendants, and they rushed to the window to ascertain the cause of the alarm.

Brooklyn Boy's Sport Terminates Fatally for One of Them. Philip Boone, a tall, good-looking boy of eighteen years, who lives with his parents at 788 Fourth avenue, Brooklyn. was arraigned before Justice Tighe in the Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning on the charge of causing died on June 12. Coroner Kene has ordered an autopsy. SAYS IT WAS AN ACCIDENT

dent of the Gravel roofers' Union, and one of the most prominent labor leaders in Chicago, was in-stantly killed by a Chicago and Eric freight train which he tried to board at Sixty-third and Wallace streets last near. He missed his foot-ing and fell beneath the wheels.

morning by failing into an excavation at One Hundred and Thirtieth street and Third avenue. Hartem Hospital.

